A Powerful Partnership to Educate the Public About Lupus

Excellence Girls' Club, Inc., The Junior League of Norfolk-Virginia Beach, Inc. and The Lupus Foundation of America, Eastern Virginia Chapter team up to educate the public about Lupus

On Saturday, April 21, 2007 from 1:00 p.m. – 5:00 p.m., members of the Excellence Girls' Club, Inc., the Junior League of Norfolk-Virginia Beach, Inc. and the Lupus Foundation of America, Eastern Virginia Chapter will team up at local malls to educate the public about the effects of Lupus. Last year the Excellence Girls' Club lost one of its members, Rudi Brown, to the disease on October 28, 2006 at age thirteen. This event profoundly impacted the young women of the Excellence Girls' Club and they felt it was their responsibility to bring awareness to this disease. The Excellence Girls' Club would like the public to be aware of what the disease is, how it affects the body and what resources are available to those suffering from the disease and their family members.

By visiting the various malls in South Hampton Roads (Chesapeake Square, Greenbrier Mall, The Gallery at Military Circle, Pembroke Mall, and Lynnhaven Mall) on the afternoon of April 21, you can meet a group of extraordinary young women and learn about this life-altering disease.

Lupus is a chronic (long-lasting) autoimmune disease in which the immune system, for unknown reasons, becomes hyperactive and attacks normal tissue. Lupus can occur at any age, and in either sex. Nine out of ten people with lupus are women. Overwhelming infection and kidney failure are among the most common causes of death in people with lupus.
